

NATURAL RESOURCE MANAGERS

These private consulting resource managers have expressed interest in providing forest management services that comply to Vermont Family Forests standards.

In alphabetical order:

1. Brett Engstrom, ecologist

836 VT Route 232
Marshfield, VT 05658
(802) 426-3534

engstrom@together.net

- Natural community mapping
- Plant surveys (including rare, threatened and endangered species)
- Vegetation/ecological monitoring plots

2. Mark Lapin, ecologist

Ecosystem Science and Consulting
239 Cider Mill Rd.
Cornwall, VT 05753
(802) 462-2514
mlapin@shoreham.net

- Natural community mapping
- Preparation of VFF Certified management plan
- Restoration planning and consultation, including plantation conversion and invasive exotic plant assessment and control measures.
- Plant surveys (including rare, threatened and endangered species)
- Vegetation/ecological monitoring plots

3. Lynn Levine, consulting forester

Forest Care 221 Partridge Rd.
East Dummerston, VT 05346-9682
(802) 254-4717

forest@sover.net

- Natural community mapping
- Preparation of VFF Certified management plan
- Certified timber harvests

4. David McMath, consulting forester

McMath Forestry
4875 Noyestar Rd.
E. Hardwick, VT 05836
(866) 462-6284 (toll free)
(802) 533-2970

- Natural community mapping
- Preparation of VFF Certified management plan
- Certified timber harvests

5. Nancy Patch, consulting forester

North Woods Forestry
2767 Woodward Rd.
Richford, VT 05476
(802) 933-2642

nancpatch@earthlink.net

- Natural community mapping
- Preparation of VFF Certified management plan
- Certified timber harvests

6. Lee Perlow

- Natural community mapping
- GIS services

7. Harris Roen, consulting forester

46 Scarff Ave.
Burlington, VT 05401
(802) 658-2368

lm@roen.net

- Natural community mapping
- Preparation of VFF certified management plan
- Certified timber harvest preparation

8. Eric Sorenson, ecologist

- Natural community mapping
- Providing information to the public and to land managers on natural community conservation and ecology

9. Ralph Tursini, consulting forester

POB 224
Underhill Center, VT 05490
tursini1@yahoo.com
(802) 899-6863

- Preparation of VFF certified management plan
- Certified timber harvest preparation